ORAL ORDER

1. The matter was called out on 15.1.2011.Shri Jitendra Thakkar was present on behalf of the petitioner. Shri Utkarsh Acharya was present on behalf of the respondent.

2. Shri Utkarsh Acharya, on behalf of the respondent, submitted that their Ld. Adv. Shri M.G. Ramachandra, who comes from New Delhi is unable to attend the hearing on account of the festival of Makar Sankranti and Pongal. He, therefore, requested for adjournment of the matter. He further submitted that their Ld. Advocate Shri M.G. Ramchandran, is also appearing on their behalf in another Petition No.1002 of 2010. He therefore, requested that the present petition and petition no.1002 of 2010 may be kept for the same day.

3. Shri Jitendra Thakkar on behalf of the petitioner consented for the adjournment.

4. As the respondent wanted time for the reasons as stated above and the petitioner has also consented for the same, the Commission considered their request and grants adjournment for giving an opportunity of being heard to both the parties.

5. We order accordingly.

6. The next date of hearing will be intimated separately.
