Rethink 5% customs duty on newsprint, INS appeals to govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE NEW DELHI, MARCH 4

NEW DELHI, MARCH 4
THE INDIAN Newspaper Society (INS) Monday appeaded
to the government to reconsider the imposition of five per cent customs duty on newsprint.
The measure will come as much-needed relief to the print media industry, said the organization, withic counts newspapers, periodicals and magazines across the country as its members.
INS said the factors affecting the price and availability of newsprint - geopolitical uncertainties. Jogistics, rupe-depreciation and extension sluty have created a formidable burden for publishers in the county.

including for newsprint, the or-ganisation said in a statement

Monday.
"Coupled with the Red Sea issue, where cargo ships are being continuously targeted, has further exacerbated the situafurther exacerbated the situa-tion, leading to disruptions in the transportation of essential commodities, including newsprint, Resultantly, the newsprint suppliers are can-celling the earlier confirmed orders of the publishers," the statement saws orders of the publishers," the statement says. and many mewsprint mills in India and abroad have either suspended or cased production, sparking supply concerns.

The fluctuating currency exchange rates contribute to the rising costs of importing newsprint, straining the financial vibility of newspapers and publications, it said.

The statement says that the survival of print media is crucial for the largest democracy in the world, as newspapers not only serve as a vital medium for dissentinating knowledge and information at low and afford-able costs to the people but also contribute to the government's efforts to inform citizens about policies and social welfare pro-grammes.
