Will watch Maharaj in interest of justice: HC amid stay on release

SOHINI GHOSH
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 19

THE GUJARAT High Court on Wednesday said that it will watch Maharaj in the interest of justice. The court's decision comes even as the stay on the release of the movie on Netflix continued for another day.

Yash Raj Films (YRF) on Tuesday had suggested to the court that it is open to the court viewing the film. Pressing on the suggestion on Wednesday, the court said the petitioners submitted before the court that they have no objections to the court viewing the film.

A day before the scheduled release of the movie on Netflix on June 13, the High Court had ordered an interim stay on the release after hearing a petition moved by several followers of the Vaishnavite Pustimarg sect who identify themselves as devotees of Lord Krishna. Actor Anam Khan's son Junaid Khan is making his debut in the movie.

Mulji claimed in an article, published in a weekly newspaper he edited, that the religious leader had alleged sexual liaisons with his female followers and men were expected to show their devotion by offering their wives for sex. The case was dismissed.

On Wednesday, senior advocates Shalin Mehta, appearing for YRF, and Jai Unwalla, representing Netflix, suggested to Justice Sangeeta Viswan that the court may view the film and then consider the merits of the matter. The respondents — Netflix and YRF — have raised issues on the maintainability of the petition as well as the delay by the petitioners in moving court. The portrayal of facts of legal history can't be curtailed, Netflix had told the High Court on Tuesday.

Appearing for the petitioners, senior advocate Mihir Joshi informed the court that they have no objection if the court views the movie. "We are not interested in blocking the movie. We only want that (Netflix, YRF) kindly ensure that the religion as a whole is not run down or the dignity of the religion is affected," Joshi submitted.

The hearing on the merits of the case is expected to continue on Thursday.

DEMAND FOR MORE BCom SEATS AT MSU

NSUI workers clash with cops during protest; eight detained

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
VADODARA, JUNE 19

EIGHT WORKERS of the National Students' Union of India (NSUI) were detained in Vadodra after they clashed with police during a protest to demand for more BCom seats under MS University's Faculty of Commerce. The detainees were released with a warning later in the day.

The protest came a day after Vice-Chancellor VK Srivastava announced an additional 1,400 BCom general category seats after growing resentment among students and parents that locals would be left out following the adoption of the centralised online admission portal — Gujarat Common Admission Service (GCAS) — by state-run universities of Gujarat. With the announcement, the total number of BCom seats at MSU increased to 7,200.

However, the student wing of the Congress has been demanding that the MSU must increase its seats in the commerce faculty to accommodate all students from Vadodra city who may have scored 50 per cent marks or more. "We have demanded that all students of Vadodra will be left out to pursue Commerce and have scored more than 50 per cent.

NSUI workers during the stir on the road outside the MSU head office, on Wednesday. Express should be granted admissions at MSU. It has always been the case until 2023, when the current Vice-Chancellor decided to reduce the seats from 9,000 to 5,300. The seats were increased to 5,800 after protests. However, this year, due to GCAS the cut-off has been 75.86 per cent for the general category, which is an issue and several students of Vadodra will be left out even after the addition of 1,400 seats," said NSUI President Anar Vaghela.

According to officers at Sayajinagar police station, eight NSUI members were detained for blocking the main road outside the MSU head office and causing traffic disruption.

Members of All Gujarat Students Union (AGSU) were also detained by the police after engaging in a face-off with the vigilance officers of MSU during a protest at the head office.

MORBI BRIDGE COLLAPSE

Oreva forms compensation trust, High Court seeks Action Taken Report against officials who erred

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 19

THE GUJARAT High Court Wednesday directed the state government to submit a report on the action taken against Morbi municipality officials in relation to the Jhulio Pal collapse in 2022 that claimed 135 people.

A division bench of Chief Justice Sunita Agarwal and Justice Pranav Trivedi sought that the report be placed before the court by the next date of hearing scheduled for July 23.

Meanwhile, Oreva, which was in charge of the maintenance and repair of the bridge, informed the court that it has registered a trust for the welfare and compensation disbursement to the victims — the next of kin of the deceased as well as those injured in the incident — and will soon be opening a bank account with an initial corpus of Rs 15 lakh.

The trust — Sahay Seva Parivartan Trust (SST) — was registered following suggestions from the court in previous hearings to support and take care of the needs of the victims, including widows, orphaned children or children left with one parent and those who suffered disabilities, among others.

The court sought the Action Taken Report after it, in its order in October 2023, had recorded the state's submission that it would place such a report after the Special Investigating Team (SIT) in the case submitted its final report on October 9, 2023.

However, such a report was yet to be submitted by the state, the court noted. Recording that the contents of the final SIT report had detailed about the lapses on the part of the officers, the court directed advocate Kamal Trivedi to submit the said report.

The Morbi bridge collapse on October 9, 2022, has claimed 135 lives. File

Senior counsel Nirupam Navanav, on behalf of the company, informed the bench that the trust has seven trustees, including representatives from the company as well as four government officials.

The court recommended that the trustees now sit together and work out a mechanism for executing the proposals of compensation and support to the victims. The court also directed that the minutes of the meeting also be brought on the court's record.
