

area at Amroli in Surat city on Sunday night. A fire broke out on the third floor of Lifestyles at Pragati Eco Park. While the first and second floors comprise embroidery units, the fourth and fifth floors also house the godowns of the embroidery units. Employees on the first and second floor escaped.

The factory's security guard, Brijeshnath Dubey (60), was sleeping alone inside at the time of the fire, said officials.

After being informed, teams from six fire stations with 13 water cannon vehicles reached the spot.

During cooling activities, the fire teams discovered the body from the balcony of the embroidery store room on the fourth floor.

Surat fire officer Hitesh Thakore said, "The fire broke out on the third floor and its flames spread to the fourth floor. The third floor was occupied by a nail cut, but the investigations are going on."

He said, "The factory has only one entry and exit, while there Amroli police also reached the spot after learning about the fire. Police registered an accidental death complaint.
